The knocker is a disgrace to any community which he inflicts with his residence in it.

Memphis officials deny in toto the charges made in the recent ouster suit against them and yet every visitor to that city gets all the drinks he wants, of any kind he wants and when he wants.

The four candidates for United States senator from this state who will go in to the primary of November 20 are now busy with their campaigns. Each candidate seems perfectly pleased with his chances of winning—this seems the natural state of the candidate's mind.

REMEMBER Pe-ru-na

When You Call At Our Drug Store

Mr. Robert H. Norris, No. 1333 Henry St., North Berkeley, Cal., writes: "We have never had any other medicine but Peruna in our home since we have been married. I suffered with kidney and bladder trouble, but two months treatment with Peruna made me a well and strong man. My wife felt weak and was easily tired and was also troubled with various pains, but since she took Peruna she is well and strong."

The Falcon is receiving from the campaign headquarters of the several senatorial candidates matter boosting them for the office, but we have notified each headquarters that such matter as they want inserted in The Falcon must be accompanied by check covering cost of such insertion at regular rates. Our advertising space is for sale, but we are not going to use this space for any politician any more unless for the money.

To one who watches foreign affairs from afar it appears that England is in a mighty poor position to be asking the American people for loans. It is a matter of business purely, of course, but so is the matter of trading with other European nations merely a matter of business. We believe just as we said nearly a year ago that the United States could stop the European war in sixty days if she would cut off her exports to those countries, and we believe it should be done.

The recent opening of the county high school in this city is gratifying to those in the community and county who desire to see the school interests in the county prosper. The attendance from districts outside the first is larger than usual at the opening and prospects for a successful year's work seem bright. The future of the school depends as much on the patrons as on any body else. There is a work for every citizen to do to help to make the school just what it should be, and unless the patrons join in their efforts to help, the teachers will be powerless to make it as good a school as it should be. One appeal we make for it, don't knock. There are sure to be ups and downs in the progress of affairs there, nothing is more certain. But when these come the teachers need the active and hearty co-operation of parents and unless this co-operation is given great may be the injury to your child in the final development of his training. A wrong step by a parent in a crisis may mean the ruining of your child's education. We have seen more than one such in a long term of years in schools. There is no more important institution in this county than its high school and we owe it more, as good citizens, than we are giving it.

DON'T MISTAKE THE CAUSE

Many Somerville People Have Kidney Trouble and Do Not Know It.

Do you have backache? Are you tired and worn out? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular? Highly colored; contain sediment? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warning of distress. Heed the warning; don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy. Read this Somerville testimony. Mrs. J. H. Webb, Somerville, says: "I had considerable trouble from disordered kidneys. My back pained me severely, especially mornings when I first got up and it was almost impossible for me to stoop or do any sweeping or dusting. Headaches and spells added to the misery. Doan's Kidney Pills cured all these ailments and I tell of my experience, hoping that it will help other sufferers."

Farmers Institute Exhibition October 22.

Plans for holding an exhibition of farm products, animals and poultry were furthered on last Saturday when a committee appointed for that purpose met at the court house. The committee is composed of F. P. Kyle, W. N. McFadden, W. S. Latta, A. H. Harvey and J. W. Moffatt. At their meeting on Saturday it was definitely decided to hold the exhibition and an invitation was extended to the ladies of the Home Makers club to join in the affair and hold and exhibit on the same day. This invitation was accepted and the joint exhibition will be held in this city on October 22.

The following program has been arranged and additions will be made to it before the date named. Winner of best ten ears of corn to tell how he selected it.

Winter clovers, C. B. Piper. How he grows and keeps Irish potatoes, W. S. Latta.

Winner of first prize pig to tell how he fed and cared for it.

W. N. McFadden to tell how he raised cattle which he sold for $4c last year.

Home gardener, W. T. Loggins.

The committee will meet again next Saturday to make further plans as to prizes etc. and on Saturday October 2 the committee will meet and they invite any body in the county interested in the movement to meet with them.

The Falcon can not express in too strong words its endorsement of this step on the part of the Farmers' Institute and we promise every aid in our power to further the interests of the exhibition. We believe that it means a great deal to the farming interests of the county and to Somerville as the county seat and natural center of many of the activities of the county. Nearly every county in this section of the state now has each year some kind of an exhibit of the products of the farms. Fayette has lagged somewhat, altho no county in the country has better lands or lands that respond more quickly to intelligent farming than do ours. To bring into friendly competition once each year the products of these lands will go far toward improving the products, stimulating each other to improve the crop on which our neighbor excels. The exhibition should have the active support of every farmer and business man in the county.

B. F. Murrell for County Trustee.

In this issue of The Falcon appears the announcement of B. F. Murrell as a candidate for trustee of Fayette county, subject to the action of the democratic primary which is to be held on October 30 next.

Mr. Murrell is one of the best known men of this county. He served as trustee for a number of years and was said by state auditors and comptrollers to whom he made his settlements and inspected his books to be one of the most accurate, pains-taking and efficient trustees in the state. And he prided himself during his term of office on the fact that, altho the county was at times as high as thirty thousand dollars behind with its payments, that not one warrant ever was presented that was not paid full face value. On has cards which he is distributing in his canvass for election now he promises that again he will pay every warrant of the county when presented if he is again elected trustee. This promise means much to the warrant holders who have been compelled to discount them in amounts up to one fourth or one third since Mr. Murrell went out of office.

Mr. Murrell decided to enter this race, only after having been solicited by some of the best citizens of the county, coming from every part of the county, and after seeing that no other aspirant for the office was going to run against the present incumbent. He asks support in his race on the record he made during his term of office, his efficiency, and believing that he can save to holders of warrants throughout the county many thousands of dollars which are now going as discounts to those who have the warrants and thus get them at a fraction of their face value. He promises, if elected, the same careful attention to the office that has characterized his service in the past, and promises that every warrant will be cashed at its face value.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect. LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. 25c.

To E. L. and Jas. A. Humphreys.

W. H. Humphreys et al. In the County Court at Somerville, Tennessee.

In this cause, it appearing from the bill which is sworn to, that E. L. Humphreys and Jas. A. Humphreys, two of the defendants, are non-residents of the State of Tennessee, they are, therefore, hereby required to appear, on or before the 1st Monday in November next, before the County Court of Fayette County at the Court-house in Somerville, Tennessee, and make defense to the bill filed against them and others in this cause by W. H. Humphreys et al., or otherwise the bill will be taken for confessed.

It is further ordered that this notice be published for four consecutive weeks in the Fayette Falcon, a newspaper published at Somerville, Tennessee.

THOUSANDS WILL GO TO TRI-STATE FAIR

ALL SOUTH IS INTERESTED IN THE BIG AGRICULTURAL EXPOSITION.

Every Town in Three States Will Send Delegations to Memphis During Ten Days of September 26 to October 5.

"All aboard for the Tri-State Fair!" People in this section are all agog with interest in the big agricultural and development exposition at Memphis, which opens September 26 and will run until October 5.

So important has the fair become to this territory that plans are already under way for a big attendance from this county. The fair this year will be unusually interesting. Owing to the war and other conditions, farming and business methods have in the past year undergone a tremendous change, and the fair will act as a gigantic mirror in reflecting the progress which has been made.

One of the biggest attractions at any fair is the Stock Show. At Memphis this is especially the case. The Memphis Stock Show has always been one of the biggest in the South, and this year it promises to eclipse all previous records.

Practically every big herd in the country will send its champions to Memphis to compete for the premiums.

Owing to the splendid co-operation given the fair association by the registry associations, Secretary Frank Fuller has announced that over $16,000 will be offered this year in live stock premiums alone.

Agriculture will also be a keynote feature. The county exhibits have always brought forth the hottest kind of a race, and this year, owing to the wider variety being grown, this competition will be even more keen.

The fair association officials are firm believers in the axiom, "Something doing every minute!" and they have seen to it that every minute of the ten days is crowded full of interest.

The railroads are offering special rates to Memphis during the week and are anticipating record business.

HORSE SHOW FOUR NIGHTS

Tri-State Fair Will Give Premiums to Fancy Steppers.

During the first four nights of the Tri-State Fair, which opens at Memphis September 26, a Horse Show, at which attractive premiums will be awarded fancy steppers, promises to be one of the very interesting features.

Pretty horseflesh never fails to arouse admiration, and when to this is added the further beauty of a graceful rider or a pretty driver, the combination is irresistible.

The fair has done much to encourage the breeding of better horses, and the fruits of some of its work will be shown this year.
